We represent the Automodular Corporation, the appellant in the above referenced matter involving an appeal from the Bankruptcy Court in the Delphi bankruptcy case. We write to request a one business day extension to file the appellant's moving brief. Under the current schedule, the appellant is required to file its opening brief by May 9, 2008. We seek leave to file by May 12, 2008. We have sought the consent of the Debtor-Appellee, but it has not agreed to the one business day extension.

Debtor-Appellee refused to consent to the extension because it believes the appellant has had sufficient time to prepare the brief between the filing of the Notice of Appeal and the current May 9, 2008. Appellant's preparation has been limited by the maternity leave of one of the counsel involved in the case. In any event, a one day extension to accommodate counsel's schedule will not prejudice the Debtor-Appellee in any way and is routinely agreed to as a professional courtesy. Thus, we respectfully request that the extension be granted, permitting the appellant to file its brief by May 12.

This request is timely filed as it comes more than two (2) days before Appellants opening brief is due to be filed. This is the first request for an extension in this matter, and will not impact any dates other than the Debtor-Appellee's date to file an answering brief in this matter. Of course, we would consent to the Debtor-Appellee's extension of its time to answer Automodular's brief should the Debtor so require.

Respectfully Submitted,
